By Pramila Iyer

Partridge India, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Seeking joy is inherent in humans. Joy has different dimensions based on so many factors like our social status, availability of resources, our health, our age, our station in our life and many more. naturally joy has many variables. Beneath these variables in just one factor life or breathing. Only a living person can experience joy or sorrow. and not a dead man. Thus, our almost unconscious breathing is the only important factor which unfortunately is hardly recognized by us. Many times we sigh and say: oh. to be a child again. . Why have we lost our childhood? Is it because we have seen many sunsets and sun rises? May be not. For our mind is either stuck in the past or tucked in the future. Having fun with our life i.e. our breath brings back at least a few hours of our childhood. especially if narrated in a story form. that is what the book is all about . When action and story is combined, you are physically and emotionally involved. This beautiful combination transports you to the...
