Within a defined tract in the drier portion of the irrigation district the government will sell land for reclamation by means of irrigation. This tract comprises the southern portion of the province of Alberta and the southwestern portion of Saskatchewan. The conditions of such sales are: 1. Before any such sale is authorized it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the minister that the land applied for is irrigable and the water supply sufficient, and that the applicant has applied for a water right and received authorization for the construction of the necessary works. 2. When not exceeding one quarter-section is sold, at least ten acres shall be irrigated, but a sale on such conditions will be made only in cases where the...
