Reviews

It is one of the best books. Better than ever, though I am quite late in starting to read this one. I am delighted to explain how this is the best book I have ever studied in my personal lifestyle and might be the best PDF for ever.

PHI BETA KAPPA: ALPHA OF WISCONSIN; CATALOGUE (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Phi Beta Kappa: Alpha of Wisconsin; Catalogue Phi Beta Kappa embodies the spirit which is historically that of the American college - that of liberal education as distinguished from professional or technical training. It is the purpose of a liberal education to establish close and sympathetic relations between the student and human thought in its wider expression. It appeals to the deep-rooted love of knowledge for its own sake, which is never absent from the human heart. It cultivates and strengthens this love and directs it toward worthy and permanent objects. It finds those objects in the multiform expressions of human personality in letters, arts, and science, and it attempts to connect the life of the student with these as never-failing sources of pleasure and enrichment. As an honor society Phi Beta Kappa recognizes those students who have most conspicuously profited by their undergraduate course and so give promise of having fairly begun a liberal education. It gives this recognition not only to show honor to personal distinction in college work, but also to emphasize the place which a liberal education holds both in the personal life and in that of the community which the graduate enters. For the continued success of a community - whether local or national - depends in no small degree on the presence in it, as a living force, of the spirit that underlies liberal education. The love of learning for its own sake, the disinterested pursuit of knowledge, an active, alert, intellectual interest in many fields of knowledge and in those fields most widely separated from commercial profit and most alien to vocation - these must be present as...
