It is small comfort to know that we share this languor with other Churches. The attritions of mind are fiercer now than they ever were, and all things appear in preparation for such a war of opinion as we have never seen yet. . . I have a chapel on hand just now, to be opened on November 1st. My fund, which is yet 1,200 short of the 10,000 contemplated, keeps me busy, for I must finish it this year. How many children have you? Mine are making me feel old. Fanny, my eldest, my only girl, is fifteen years old, just finishing her schooling, and I am happy to say, decided for God, and a member of Society. She is tall and delicate. John William, my eldest boy, is fourteen, a mathematical genius, but a care and anxiety to...
